

THE TOP 5 ART EXHIBITIONS TO SEE IN LONDON IN FEBRUARY AND MARCH

Massimiliano Gottardi: Zero at Alice Amati

Massimiliano Gottardi, Mirages I, Mirages II, 2026

Can we alter our fate, and can we sway it in our favour? It's the question asked in this surreal exhibition, where clovers are growing inside an icosahedron filled with insulation. Maybe a four-leafed one will eventually appear, while a giant structure made of wax has had holes melted through it, splattering wax on the floor. Downstairs, it gets trippier in the dark, as tanks of water hold cutlery, a wax-paper aeroplane, and a stereo, as if they are time capsules holding on to past memories. Until 28th February.
