THE TOP 6 ART EXHIBITIONS TO SEE IN LONDON IN MID-NOVEMBER

The Serpent's Tail: Rike Droescher and Zoe Koke @ Alice Amati

It's heaven above and hell below in this exhibition that combines the sculpture of Rike Droescher and the paintings of Zoe Koke. Koke's skies upstairs are idyllic while downstairs they are drawn from war and wildfires. Likewise with the sculptures where clothes act as body armour downstairs, with apples upstairs symbolic of the Garden of Eden that will reduce in number as each one is bought. Until 18 November.
