Paul Robas, Hypnic Jerk, 2026. Acrylic, oil and ink on linen, 30 x 40 x 3 cm

Hypnic Jerk is part of a new body of works by Paul Robas. The artist draws on made and found photographs from his archive, which he edits, processes and collages – transforming personhood into a surface of memory, subjectivity and interior states. Robas is nominated by Louise Giovanelli for the Artist-to-Artist section at Frieze London 2026.
